

Title of the Article in English

Abstract:

The abstract should be written in English. It should contain 125- 200 words. The abstract should briefly summarize the contents of your article. Please include a quick overview of the focus, results and conclusion of your study.

Keywords: 3-4 keywords in English

Introduction

The introduction should include:

- significance, uniqueness of the topic
- the information gap in the available literature associated with the topic
- a literature review in support of the key questions
- subsequently developed purposes/objectives and hypotheses.
- information about the methods and materials

Research results and Discussion

The results sections should include the data produced by your study. It should reflect an unbiased account of the study's findings.

The discussion section should provide information on what researchers felt was significant and analyses the data.

Conclusion

The conclusion of a research paper should succinctly summarize the key findings and their implications, emphasizing the significance of the study within its field of research. Additionally, it can suggest potential directions for future research or practical applications of the findings.

References

References should be provided in APA style. The sources should not be numbered.

General information:

- The article should normally have not less than 2800 words and not more 6500 words including references;
- The paper should be written in Times New Roman 12, Line spacing: 1,5;
- The sub-headings “Introduction”, “Research results and Discussion”, “Conclusion” should not be numbered.
- Resources on using in-text citations in APA style
- References in APA style