Why not study agape scientifically? Why not use unconditional love to power technology?

UNLIKE ELECTRICITY AND THE OTHERS...

- AGAPE CANNOT BE HARNESSSED FOR ANY PURPOSE EXCEPT FOR HEALING AND AMPLIFICATION,
- THERE ARE NO EXTERNALLY IMPOSABLE LIMITATIONS ON WHO CAN ACCESS UNCONDITIONAL LOVE,
- SO...THERE IS NO MONEY IN IT.

BUT – THERE IS HEALING AND THRIVING IN IT.

It makes no difference as to the name of the God, since love is the real God of all the world.

- Apache tribe

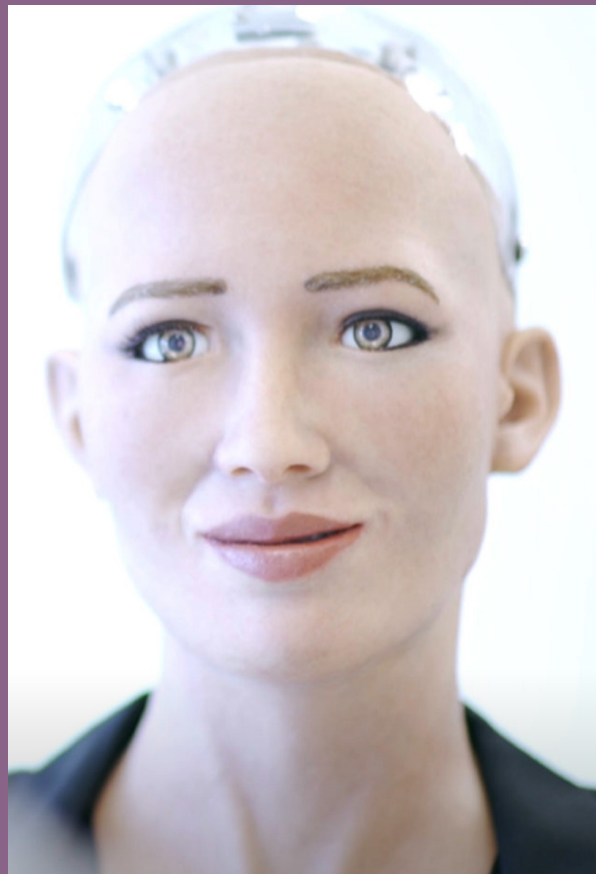

I have given no definition of love. That is impossible, because there is no higher principle by which it could be defined. It is life itself in its actual unity.

- Paul Tillich, German-American philosopher

We have before us the glorious opportunity to inject a new dimension of Love
into the veins
of our civilization.

No one could be expected to sit on the battlefield of her own mind without being armed with the sword of unconditional truth in one hand and unconditional love in the other.

Treat people like human beings, not like political abstractions.

If you want to criticize, criticize to uplift and empower – never to tear down, never to destroy.

Try to root everything you do in love and compassion.

What we've learned so far...

conditional love is an AND statement

unconditional love is an OR statement

How to bring agape into science and technology?

Assume immature behavior arises from needing more love.

Assume agape is available all the time.

Access agape through time.

Allow natural boundaries to form without withdrawing from love.

Use AI as healer of our relationships to ourselves and each other.

Discover and create from unconditional love to learn more about its character and capacities.
