

Erasmus+

TransMIL Conference Crossing Boundaries in Pedagogy, Policies and Practices of Media and Information Literacy

January 24, 2019

Time	Auditorium - Conference Centre / Level -1
9.00 – 10.00	Registration , National Library of Latvia (Mukulālas Street 3)
9.00 – 10.00	Coffee
10.00 – 10.10	Opening of the Conference
10.10 – 11.00	Keynote lecture , Divina Frau-Meigs, Université Sorbonne Nouvelle, Paris, France

Time	Auditorium – Conference Centre / Level -1
11.00 – 11.15	TRANSliteracy Maarit Jaakkola Media Influencing as a Pedagogical Practice in Youth Work – the Case of the Youth's Voice News Centre in Finland
11.15 – 11.30	Eleri Lõhmus, University of Tartu Production based media-clubs as a good example of transliteracy in Estonia
11.30 – 11.45	Tatjana Pilipoveca, University of Tartu History on Screen: an Online Platform for Teaching History Through Artistic Texts
12.00 – 12.15	Ilva Skulte, Riga Stradins University Autoethnography as a method of MIL research and teaching: the case of changing reading habits
12.15 – 12.30	Alnis Stakle, Riga Stradiņš University Media and Information literacy in photography and multimedia higher education as transformative learning experience: reconnecting with collective and private past, remapping territory and rereading the image archives
12.30 – 13.15	Lunch
	Auditorium – Conference Centre / Level -1
	TRANSmedia
13.15 – 13.30	Sergei Krivov, Lobachevsky State University of Nizhni Novgorod, Russia Media literacy in educational programs for Russian-speaking audience: on the example of information content concerning interethnic relations
13.30 – 13.45	Deimantas Jastramskis & Andrius Šuminas, Vilnius University Media Literacy of Young People: News Trustworthiness Research
14.00 – 14.15	Natalija Ignatova, Vilnius University of Applied Sciences Key competences for personalizing learning with media
14.15 – 14.30	Ineta Kivle, Academic Library of the University of Latvia Method and Praxis of Interdisciplinarity: Experience of Academic Library

14.30 – 14.45	Maureen C. Minielli, The Pennsylvania State University & LCC International University, Klaipeda, Lithuania The Open Educational Resources (OER) Movement in the U.S: Making Course Information Affordable and Accessible for University Students
14.45 – 15.00	Sandra Murinska, Rezekne Academy of Technologies Media Literacy in Hyperlocal News Media
15.00-15.15	BREAK
	Auditorium – Conference Centre / Level -1 TRANSdisciplines
15.15 – 15.30	Paulina Barczyszyn-Madziarz & Michał Kuś, University of Wrocław The role of Media and Information Literacy in the world of fake news and post-truth
15.30 – 15.45	Kadri Ugur, University of Tartu From generation gaps to mutual benefits in media literacy
15.45 – 16.00	Urmas Loit, University of Tartu Media literacy is to be integrally included in the state media policy (media governance)
16.00 – 16.15	Anda Rožukalne, Riga Stradins University “Let’s play a real journalists’ game!” Case analysis of media literacy project "Full Mind" in Latvia (2017 - 2018)
16.15 – 16.30	Elena Gnezdova, Lobachevsky State University of Nizhni Novgorod, Russia Arab spring and features of information literacy development in the Arab Middle East: socio-cultural aspects
16.30 – 16.45	Maria Murumaa-Mengel, University of Tartu, Estonia Audience Awareness as a Key Component of Social Media Literacies
17.15 – 18.00	Closing Session: Media Literacy in the Context of Transdisciplinarity in School Curricula. Discussion with Teachers on Methodology

Organisers: Erasmus+ Project MIL+LAB, Riga Stradiņš University and the National Library of Latvia

RĪGA STRADIŅŠ
UNIVERSITY