

Registration process

Step by step

Step no. 1

Creating a profile

To apply for participation in the marathon, it is necessary to create your own profile.

If a profile has already been created in previous years, it can be safely used and this step can be skipped.

<https://rimirigamarathon.com/en/registration/>

Create a new user account

Here you create a new user account, that you then use when you register yourself or unlimited number of participants.

Step no. 2

Register for a run

Creating a profile does not guarantee participation in the race, so it is necessary to register for your chosen distance.

To do this, click on the «New Participant» button.

List of all participants.

You can add participants and make changes for all the additional services directly into each registration record.
