24. If RSU cannot provide applicant's admission to the study programme that the applicant has applied (for example, if a full study group is not formed), the applicant can request to use the same application fee (on the basis of an electronic application) for the next successive admission of the University if the applicant reapplies for admission to the University.
25. RSU shall only accept a letter of motivation from the applicant drawn up on the appropriate RSU form.
26. RSU shall only accept letters of recommendation from the applicant drawn up on the appropriate RSU form.
27. RSU shall not accept letters of recommendation written by the applicant's relatives, friends or other involved parties.
28. Where relevant, applicants who are citizens of EU/EEA countries shall upload their documents only in legally approved (notarised) way or approved by the issuing authority. No additional certifications are necessary.
29. Where relevant (usually for documents issued in non-EU/EEA countries), prior to the uploading of the documents, the applicant shall ensure the certification of documents with an Apostille or their legalisation in the country of document origin following the legalisation procedure stipulated by the regulatory enactments, in conformity with The Hague Convention of 5 October 1961 abolishing the requirement of legalisation for foreign public documents, Law on Hague Convention on abolishing the requirement of legalisation for foreign public documents, a.o. regulatory enactments.
30. Document certification with Apostille or legalisation in the country of document origin is compulsory to all public documents issued in the respective country included in the list of documents to be submitted by the applicants, including:
 - 30.1. secondary school leaving diploma and the official transcript (for the second level professional higher education programmes and Bachelor's programmes);
 - 30.2. bachelor's diploma and the official transcript (for Master's study programmes);
 - 30.3. police clearance certificate from the country where the applicant has stayed for the past 12 (twelve) months;
 - 30.4. academic transcript of acquired study results (study subjects) and ECTS (European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System) credit points in their previous university studies, if such transcript was uploaded on the eA Portal.
31. If the applicant's documents have been legalized in the country of document origin, the applicant or the University shall take the necessary measures to legalize these documents in the Consular Department of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Latvia in accordance with regulatory enactments.
32. The University covers the expenses of the legalisation of applicant's documents in the amount of 50.00 EUR (fifty Euros 00 cents). If the expenses of document legalization exceed the above-mentioned amount, the applicant (after the applicant has started studies at the University) refunds the difference upon the University's request.
33. If any of the submitted documents issued by the respective country contains the personal name and/or surname other than the one in the applicant's passport or personal identity card (ID card), the applicant shall present an official/notarised document in English or Latvian attesting the change of the personal name and/or surname.

Chapter VI

Admission Criteria, Requirements, Subjects, Assessment

Sub-chapter One

Academic Criteria, Requirements, Subjects and Evaluation of the Same

34. RSU has defined the following general academic criteria for the admission of applicants to the English-taught second level professional higher education programmes, Bachelor's programmes, Master's programmes and Doctoral programmes:
 - 34.1. second level professional higher education programmes and Bachelor's programmes – completed secondary education attested by originals or certified copies of the secondary education diploma and official transcript (copies must be certified by a sworn notary or applicant's educational establishment or the institution that issued the original document);
 - 34.2. master's programmes – completed Bachelor's programme attested by originals or certified copies of the Bachelor's diploma and official transcript (copies must be certified by a sworn notary or applicant's educational establishment);
 - 34.3. doctoral programmes – completed Master's programme attested by originals or certified copies of the Master's diploma and official transcript (copies must be certified by a sworn notary or applicant's educational establishment).
35. In addition to academic criteria for admission to English-taught study programmes offered by RSU specified in this Chapter of the Procedure, the University has defined the criteria for admission of applicants who have previously studied at another university (hereinafter – Transfer Applicants). Transfer Applicants can qualify for recognition of the acquired study results (study subjects) and ECTS credit points in their previous university studies and for inclusion of these subjects and ECTS in their study plan. The University determines the procedure of evaluation of applications submitted by Transfer Applicants in accordance with the decision of the RSU Senate. The decisions about comparison and recognition of the acquired study results (study subjects (credit points)) is taken by the Committee for Comparison and Recognition of Study Results (Credit Points) (hereinafter – Transfer Committee).

Sub-chapter Two

Programme-specific Subjects, Compulsory Subjects, Additional Subjects, and Substitution of Assessment in Study Programmes “Medicine” and “Dentistry”

36. RSU has defined the following programme-specific subjects, compulsory subjects and additional subjects acquired at the secondary school for the admission of applicants:
 - 36.1. programme-specific subjects:
 - 36.1.1. English;
 - 36.1.2. biology;
 - 36.1.3. chemistry.
 - 36.2. compulsory subjects: mathematics.
 - 36.3. additional subjects: physics.
37. The University evaluates applications to study programmes “Medicine” and “Dentistry” also in cases when only biology or only chemistry has been acquired at the secondary school level.
38. Taking into account the peculiarities of educational systems of various countries, the University reserves the rights to evaluate applications with secondary school diplomas and official transcripts that do not contain the subjects “biology” and “chemistry” but contain subject(s) of similar content having different name(s) (for example, “natural sciences”, “physics-chemistry”, “biology-geology”, “biotechnology”).
39. If the applicant has obtained the secondary education abroad (not in Latvia) and has not acquired biology, chemistry or subject(s) of similar content having different name(s) at secondary school or if the assessment of these subjects is low, the assessments may be replaced by:

- 39.1. the assessment of the study results indicated in a certificate of completion of the University's Open University courses (taking individual RSU study subjects as a free listener) of similar content;
- 39.2. the assessment of the acquired study subjects in the previous university studies (biology, chemistry or subjects of similar content), if the Transfer Committee has decided to recognise the referenced study subject. In such cases, the recognised study subject meets the requirements of the RSU Admission Competition. The assessment of the referenced study subject is indicated in a decision protocol of the Transfer Committee. After receiving the decision protocol of the Transfer Committee, ID responsible employees substitute applicant's grades for the Admission Competition and organise further participation of the applicant in the University's Admission Competition.
40. Taking into account the peculiarities of educational systems of various countries, the University reserves the rights to evaluate applications with secondary school diplomas and official transcripts that do not contain the subject "mathematics" but contain subject(s) of similar content having different name(s) (for example, "algebra", "calculus").
41. Taking into account the peculiarities of educational systems of various countries, for applicants who have acquired at secondary school from countries with a specialisation/profiling secondary education programme that does not have the subject "mathematics" as a compulsory subject (for instance, The United Kingdom, Sri Lanka, India, and other countries), the University allows an exception and substitutes the Admission Competition compulsory grade in the subject "mathematics" (final/last secondary school semester grades and exam grades) with a corresponding grade in the subject "physics".

Sub-chapter Three
Programme-specific Subjects
Study Programme "International Business and Start-up Entrepreneurship"

42. RSU has defined the following programme-specific subjects acquired at the secondary school for the admission of applicants:
 - 42.1. English;
 - 42.2. mathematics;
 - 42.3. Latvian language for applicants who have obtained secondary education in an accredited education institution of the Republic of Latvia.
43. Taking into account the peculiarities of educational systems of various countries, the University reserves the rights to evaluate applications with secondary school diplomas and official transcripts that do not contain the subject "mathematics" but contain subject(s) of similar content having different name(s) (for example, "algebra", "calculus").
44. Taking into account the peculiarities of educational systems of various countries, for applicants who have acquired at secondary school from countries with a specialisation/profiling secondary education programme that does not have the subject "mathematics" as a compulsory subject (for instance, The United Kingdom, Sri Lanka, India, and other countries), the University allows an exception and substitutes the Admission Competition compulsory grade in the subject "mathematics" (final/last secondary school semester grades and exam grades) with a corresponding grade in the subject "physics".

Sub-chapter Four
Assessment of Programme-specific Subjects, Compulsory Subjects, Additional Subjects and Other Subjects

45. Upon assessing applicants' performance, the University shall:
 - 45.1. take into account only those subjects included in the secondary school diploma and the official transcript that the applicant has studied for at least 2 (two) semesters;
 - 45.2. take into account exam grades included in the secondary school leaving diploma and the official transcript;
 - 45.3. only take into account the final secondary school semester grades if they are obtained in the last semester of the secondary school or (if this is not the case) if they are obtained

- in the most recent semester/study year of the last 4 (four) semesters (2 (two) years) of the secondary school;
- 45.4. in case both final/last secondary school semester and also exam grades have been received, all these grades shall be taken into account;
 - 45.5. not take into account the overall or average grade of the subjects of the secondary school diploma and/or the official transcript;
 - 45.6. recalculates the grades into percentages by comparing the obtained grade with the highest possible grade in the secondary education grading scale of the respective country.
46. Unsatisfactory/Failing grades are not admissible in any of the subjects included in the diploma and the official transcript (including programme-specific subjects, compulsory subjects, additional and other subjects) (in conformity with the secondary education grading scale of the respective country). This requirement applies only to those Transfer Applicants who participate in the Admission Competition, who have received a failing grade in programme-specific subjects and from whom the Transfer Committee does not recognise a study subject of equivalent content acquired during previous studies at another higher education institution and does not include it in the applicant's individual study plan.
 47. RSU has set the minimum level of grades of the secondary school diploma and the official transcript (final/last secondary school semester grades and exam grades) for the admission to second level professional higher education programmes and Bachelor's study programmes (See Annex No. 10) for secondary school educational documents of the countries from which the University most frequently receives fully assembled applications. For secondary school educational documents of other countries, the minimum level of grades of the secondary school diploma and the official transcript (final grades and exam grades) for the admission to second level professional higher education programmes and Bachelor's study programmes shall be evaluated and determined separately for each country by consulting the AIC and studying the information on the educational system of the respective country.
 48. Should the applicant fail to meet the minimum level of grades of the secondary school diploma and the official transcript (final/last secondary school semester grades and exam grades) for the admission to second level professional higher education programmes and Bachelor's study programmes, the IAC reserves the rights to offer a study place to the applicant as a result of the Admission Competition, if the applicant's application contains other compelling grounds for such result of the Admission Competition.

Sub-chapter Five
Programme-specific Subjects and Other Assessment Criteria
Master's Study Programmes

49. RSU has defined the following programme-specific subjects acquired at the secondary school for the admission of applicants:
 - 49.1. English;
 - 49.2. specific programme related subjects to be evaluated by the Director of the respective study programme.
50. Academic admissions criteria and requirements for previous education are laid down in the annex of the present Procedure on a particular study programme.
51. Additional admissions criteria (for example, documents of additional training and activities, certificates, awards, diplomas, publications in peer-reviewed journals, interviews) are laid down in the annex of the present Procedure on a particular study programme.

- 59.1.3. in case the documents uploaded to the eU portal by the applicant contain both the secondary school subject grade and the results of the internationally recognised English proficiency test, the results of the internationally recognised English proficiency test shall be regarded as the applicant's Admission Competition grade in the programme-specific subject. In such cases

- IAC accepts only those English proficiency test results that correspond or exceed the minimum results indicated in the Annex No. 11 of the present Procedure;
- 59.1.4. if none of the above-mentioned criteria apply or if the ID responsible employees have reasonable doubts about the applicant's English proficiency, the applicant will be requested to take an English proficiency test designed by the RSU's Language Centre (hereinafter – RSU English Test; see Chapter VII of the present Procedure).
 - 59.2. for applicants who have completed secondary education in a non-EU/EEA country and for applicants who apply for studies for admission to RSU English-taught Master's study programmes:
 - 59.2.1. results of the internationally recognised English proficiency test taken within the last 5 (five) years (see Annex No. 11);
 - 59.2.2. results of the RSU English Test (see Chapter VII of the present Procedure).
 - 59.3. applicants do not have to certify their English proficiency to RSU in the following cases:
 - 59.3.1. secondary education or higher education acquired in English as a language of instruction;
 - 59.3.2. if the applicant mentioned in the present Paragraph of the Procedure has received a final/last secondary school semester and/or exam grade in English (studied for at least 2 (two) semesters) that is included in the secondary school leaving diploma and/or the official transcript in accordance with the requirements laid out in Sub-chapter Four of Chapter VI of the present Procedure, the University shall take this grade into account upon assessing applicants' performance.

Chapter VII

RSU'S English Proficiency Test

Sub-chapter One

General Information and Test Grading

60. In order to evaluate the applicant's English proficiency in cases stipulated by laws and regulations and other cases, as necessary, the RSU's Language Centre has designed the RSU English Test.
61. The implementation of the RSU English Test is organised by the test administrator of the RSU's Language Centre (hereinafter – Administrator) and the lecturers of the RSU's Language Centre (hereinafter – Lecturers).
62. The purpose of the RSU English Test is to determine whether the applicant's English proficiency level is at least B2. The RSU English Tests are conducted based on Paragraphs 7¹, 7² and 18 of the Cabinet Regulation No 846 “Regulations Regarding the Requirements, Criteria and Procedures for Admission to Study Programmes” of 10 October 2006.
63. During the initial stage of the ongoing admission, the Head of the ID International Admissions Office (hereinafter – the IAO) and the Head of the RSU's Language Centre agree upon the dates when the RSU English Test shall be conducted.
64. The ID responsible employee organises the applicant's participation in the RSU English Test before the assessment of the applicant's application in the Admission Competition or during the Admission Competition if upon assessment of the applicant's application the IAC decides to offer them to take the RSU English Test.
65. The ID responsible employee may offer to take the RSU English Test to:
 - 65.1. applicants who have to take the test in accordance with the abovementioned Cabinet Regulation;
 - 65.2. applicants whose initial English grade for the Admission Competition is below the minimum level of grades of the secondary school diploma and the official transcript

(final/last secondary school semester grades and exam grades) for admission to second level professional higher education programmes and Bachelor's study programmes.

66. The RSU English Test consists of four parts:
 - 66.1. Reading (online test);
 - 66.2. Language comprehension (online test);
 - 66.3. Written part (online test);
 - 66.4. Oral part (listening skills and speaking skills).
67. All parts of the RSU English Test shall be video-recorded. The video recording of the oral part of the RSU English Test shall be stored in the communication platform Microsoft Teams. The recordings of the oral part of the RSU English Test shall be available only to the Head of the RSU's Language Centre, the Administrator and the Lecturers.
68. The applicant has to pass all four parts of the RSU English Test. The applicant has to obtain at least 50% of the maximum grade for each part of the RSU English Test.
69. The overall result of the RSU English Test shall be expressed using a 100-point grading scale.
70. The University has set a minimum RSU English Test overall result of 70 points for admission to English-taught study programmes.
71. If the applicant fails the RSU English Test (fails to obtain at least 50% of the maximum grade for each part of the test) or fails to obtain an overall result of 70 points in the RSU English Test, the IAC reserves the right to offer the applicant to take the RSU English Test for one more time by retaking the part(s) of the RSU English Test in which the applicant's grade is less than 50% of the maximum grade.
72. In other cases, the retake of the RSU English Test shall only be possible if the applicant or the Administrator or Lecturers encounter technical issues that hinder successful procedure of the RSU English Test. If the applicant does not agree to retake the RSU English Test, he shall continue to participate in the Admission Competition with the initial English grade for the Admission Competition.
73. Neither during the RSU English Test nor in any communication with the applicant before or after the test, the Lecturers shall provide information to the applicant or interested parties (other third parties) about the evaluation criteria of the test. The results of the RSU English Test are available for the applicant in RSU E-studies on the test site within the ongoing admission during which the applicant has applied for studies at the University
74. The results of the RSU English Test are in force/valid only in the ongoing admission during which the applicant has applied for studies at the University.

Sub-chapter Two Requirements and Procedure of the Test

75. The RSU English Test shall take place on the Zoom online platform and is organised over two days:
 - 75.1. day one – Reading, Language comprehension and Written part (hereinafter – Online Test);
 - 75.2. day two – Oral part.
76. The ID responsible employee shall contact electronically the applicant who will be offered to participate in the RSU English Test, provide general information about the test, justify the need for the test, offer and agree with the applicant on the dates of the test.
77. If the applicant does not agree to take the RSU English Test, he shall continue to participate in the Admission Competition with the initial English grade for the Admission Competition.
78. If the applicant agrees to take the RSU English Test, the ID responsible employee shall send the list of applicants participating in the test to the Administrator at least two days before the date of day one of the RSU English Test (Online Test). The list includes applicants who take the test for the first time and those who retake a part(s) of the test.
79. The Administrator shall coordinate the RSU English Test by:
 - 79.1. informing the Lecturers about the list of applicants participating in the test;
 - 79.2. setting the time of the Online Test for each applicant;
 - 79.3. sending information on how to access the RSU English Test and other instructions to the applicants;

- 79.4. immediately informing the ID responsible employee if applicant fails to attend any of the four parts of the RSU English Test. The ID responsible employee contacts the applicant and determines the reason for failing to attend the respective part(s) of the test.
80. The Lecturers shall organise and carry out the Online Test.
81. The applicant's web camera and microphone must be turned on during the entire Online Test. The applicant is responsible for the provision of devices and ensures that they are in good working condition.
82. The applicant only receives an invitation to participate in the oral part of the RSU English Test if he has obtained at least 50% of the maximum grade for each of the three previous parts of the RSU English Test (Online Test).
83. If the applicant has a learning difficulty that causes problems with reading, language comprehension and writing (i.e., dyslexia), the applicant has to provide the Administrator with an official medical doctor's reference in English about the above-mentioned learning difficulty before taking the Online Test.
84. RSU's Language Centre has set several academic integrity violations that are unacceptable during the Online Test.
85. If academic integrity violations are detected during or after the Online Test, the Administrator asks the applicant for explanations. The applicant may be denied the opportunity to take the Online Test one more time within the ongoing admission during which the applicant has applied for studies at the University.
86. RSU's Language Centre considers that the applicant has violated the academic integrity of the Online Test if the applicant during the Online Test:
 - 86.1. uses more than one IP address of Internet connection;
 - 86.2. continues to take the Online Test with web camera or microphone turned off;
 - 86.3. does not respond to the Lecturer's questions;
 - 86.4. uses a mobile phone, paper, pens, pencils, highlighters, any books or other resources;
 - 86.5. is talking to other people who are present in the room where the Test is taking place (the applicant must be alone in the room);
 - 86.6. has tried to use ready-made fragments of texts from other resources (during the written part of the Online Test; plagiarism is allowed for up to 15% of the produced text content);
 - 86.7. has made screenshots of the Test assignments or recorded the performance;
 - 86.8. does not follow the Lecturer's instructions.
87. The Lecturers shall organise and carry out the oral part of the RSU English Test.
88. The oral part of the RSU English Test is organised as an individual online interview between the Lecturer and the applicant.
89. For the oral part of the RSU English Test to be considered as having taken place, the web camera and microphone of the applicant must be switched on throughout the oral part of the RSU English Test.
90. In cases when the oral part of the RSU English Test could not be conducted for technical or justifiable reasons, the oral part of the RSU English Test may be re-arranged.
91. The Lecturer who carries out the oral part of the RSU English Test shall do the following:
 - 91.1. at the beginning of the video recording introduce themselves, repeatedly inform the applicant that the oral part of the test will be recorded;
 - 91.2. ask the applicant to present their identity document;
 - 91.3. obtain verbal consent from the applicant for the oral part of the test and the storage and use of the oral part of the test for the purposes of the RSU Admission Competition;
 - 91.4. ask the applicant not to use a mobile phone or any other means of communication during the oral part of the test (unless necessary for the oral part of the test);
 - 91.5. inform the applicant of the cases in which the oral part of the test will be terminated immediately;
92. The oral part of the RSU English Test shall be terminated immediately if the following happens during the oral part of the test:
 - 92.1. the Lecturer has any doubts about the applicant's identity, the applicant's answers to the questions or the way these answers were given (the answers are not true, the answers are erroneous, the answers are given by another person instead of the applicant, etc.);

- 92.2. unauthorised person(s) are present or voice(s) of unauthorised person(s) can be heard in the room with the applicant;
 - 92.3. the applicant uses a mobile phone or any other means of communication not necessary for the oral part of the test;
 - 92.4. in other cases where the Lecturer considers that the applicant has behaved inappropriately during the oral part of the test or has not complied with the provisions of the present Procedure.
93. In case the oral part of the RSU English Test is terminated, the Lecturer shall inform the applicant thereof and shall stop recording the oral part of the test. In the case of a terminated oral part of the test the oral part of the test shall not be re-arranged for the applicant.

Sub-chapter Three Results of the Test

94. After the RSU English Test the Administrator shall prepare the results of the RSU English Test as a Microsoft Excel file (including the dates of the test and the results for all four parts of the test), as well as shall make other remarks and comments. If the results of the RSU English Test relate to previously taken parts of the test, the corresponding remarks shall be made. The results of the RSU English Test shall be sent electronically to the ID responsible employee.
95. Upon the receipt of the RSU English Test results, the ID responsible employee shall inform the Head of the IAO and shall note the test results in the RSU Student Information System (hereinafter – SIS).
96. Regardless of the results of the RSU English Test (passed/failed), the ID responsible employee shall substitute the applicant’s initial English grade for the Admission Competition with the test result and shall organise further participation of the applicant in the University’s Admission Competition.

Chapter VIII Online Motivational Interviews

Sub-chapter One General Information and Interview Results

97. The University shall conduct Online Motivational Interviews (hereinafter – Interviews) with citizens of non-EU/EEA countries (excluding non-citizens of Latvia, citizens of the Swiss Confederation and permanent residents of the European Community who have a valid residence permit) for selection of applicants for further participation in the Admission Competition or admission to studies at subsequent study stages. The Interviews are conducted based on Paragraph 13¹ of the Cabinet Regulation No 846 “Regulations Regarding the Requirements, Criteria and Procedures for Admission to Study Programmes” of 10 October 2006.
98. Interviews are conducted with the aim of assessing the following of applicants:
- 98.1. motivation to study in their chosen study programme in English;
 - 98.2. eligibility for the study programme;
 - 98.3. the choice of study programme and the reasons thereof;
 - 98.4. knowledge about RSU, Riga, and Latvia.
99. At the request of the RSU’s Admissions Committee, the same procedure shall also apply in cases when an applicant participates in the Admission Competition for a study programme in Latvian.
100. RSU shall offer and arrange an Interview with the applicant after the submission of a fully assembled application to the University. The Interviews shall take place on the Zoom online platform.
101. If the applicant does not agree to the Interview, they shall not continue to participate in the Admission Competition.

102. There are two possible results of the Interview - the Interview has been passed or the Interview has not been passed.
103. The Interview shall be conducted by the ID responsible employees. The Interview cannot be conducted by the ID responsible employee who has registered the online application of the applicant on the eA Portal and SIS.

Sub-chapter Two Requirements and Procedure of the Interview

104. The ID responsible employee who conducts the Interview shall contact electronically the applicant to be interviewed, justify the need for the Interview, offer and agree with the applicant on the timing of the Interview, create a separate Zoom hyperlink for each Interview and send the hyperlink to the applicant.
105. Each Interview shall be video-recorded. The video recording of the Interview shall be stored in the Panopto video content management platform (panopto.rsu.lv) according to the requirements of the RSU Document Nomenclature. Interview recordings shall be available only to the ID Director, the ID responsible employees, responsible employees of the RSU Department of Information Technology, as well as to competent institutions upon request.
106. For the Interview to be considered as having taken place, the web camera and microphone of the applicant must be switched on throughout the Interview.
107. In cases where the Interview could not be conducted for technical or justifiable reasons, the Interview may be re-arranged.
108. If the applicant fails to attend the Interview and cannot justify their failure with a justifiable reason, the Interview shall not be re-arranged and the applicant shall not continue to participate in the Admission Competition.
109. Neither during the Interview nor in any communication with the applicant before or after the Interview, the ID responsible employee shall provide information to the applicant or interested parties (other third parties) about the Interview process, the Interview evaluation criteria, and the Interview result. The Interview evaluation criteria is considered to be restricted information in accordance with Section 5, Paragraph one, Clause 5 of the Freedom of Information Law and shall be established and reviewed at least once a year by the Head of the ID IAO.
110. The ID responsible employee conducting the Interview shall do the following:
 - 110.1. at the beginning of the video recording introduce themselves, repeatedly inform the applicant that the Interview will be recorded;
 - 110.2. obtain a verbal consent from the applicant for the Interview, verification of the identity document, processing of the applicant's data, storage and use of the Interview for the purposes of the Admission Competition;
 - 110.3. ask the applicant not to use a mobile phone or any other means of communication during the Interview (unless necessary for the Interview);
 - 110.4. inform the applicant of the cases in which the Interview will be terminated immediately;
 - 110.5. ask the applicant to present their identity document, which the applicant has uploaded as one of the application documents onto the the eA Portal when filling in the electronic application form and verify the identity of the applicant;
 - 110.6. ask the applicant to provide his/her personal contact information (e-mail and phone number) in the chatbox of the Zoom online platform;
 - 110.7. during the Interview, ask the applicant a number of questions in order to fulfil the objectives of the Interview.
111. The Interview shall be terminated immediately if the following happens during the Interview:
 - 111.1. the ID responsible employee has any doubts about the identity of the applicant, applicant's answers to the questions or the way these answers were given (the answers are not true, the answers are erroneous, the answers are given by another person instead of the applicant, etc.);
 - 111.2. unauthorised persons are present or voice(s) of unauthorised person(s) can be heard in the room with the applicant;
 - 111.3. the applicant uses a mobile phone or any other means of communication not necessary for the Interview;

- 111.4. in other cases where the ID responsible employee considers that the applicant has behaved inappropriately during the Interview or has not complied with the provisions of the present Procedure.
112. In case the Interview is terminated, the ID responsible employee shall inform the applicant that the Interview is terminated and shall stop recording the Interview. In the case of a terminated Interview the Interview shall not be re-arranged for the applicant.
113. After the Interview the ID responsible employee shall inform the Head of the RSU ID IAO about the Interview process, shall decide on the result of the Interview and shall note the Interview result in the RSU SIS.
114. The Interview results shall be officially recorded in the ID IAO protocol that shall be signed electronically by the Head of the RSU ID IAO and that shall be stored in the RSU Document Management System in accordance with the ID Document Nomenclature. The result of the Interview cannot be challenged or appealed separately.
115. Only in case if the Interview is passed, the application of the applicant shall be forwarded for evaluation in the Admission Competition.

Chapter IX

Admission Competition and Its Procedure

Sub-chapter One

General Provisions of Admission Procedure

116. All received applications containing a fully assembled application documents participate in the Admission Competition, are evaluated and shall pass/fail to pass the Admission Competition, based on the following:
 - 116.1. applications meeting the admission criteria and requirements laid down in the Chapter VI of the present Procedure;
 - 116.2. other prerequisites arising from laws and regulations in force, if any have been identified as necessary.
117. The IAC determines the results of the Admission Competition (offer of study place or study place rejection).
118. The results of the Admission Competition:
 - 118.1. are stipulated in a protocol of the IAC;
 - 118.2. shall be announced to the applicants electronically (digital Study place offer/Rejection letter stating if the application has/has not passed the Admission Competition and whether the study place is offered/refused to the applicant in accordance with the protocol of the IAC);
 - 118.3. shall be announced to the applicants within 1 (one) to 3 (three) calendar months after the University has received the applicant's fully assembled application and not later than 3 (three) calendar days following the closing date of the Admission Competition. The closing date of the Admission Competition is 3 (three) calendar days before the official beginning of studies in the respective study programme;
 - 118.4. are in force/valid only in the ongoing admission during which the applicant has applied for studies at the University.
119. When evaluating the applications, IAC can also take a decision to put the application on a waiting list. This decision is stipulated in a protocol of the IAC. The communication with applicants about waitlisted applications shall be sent within 3 (three) calendar days following the date of the IAC decision. The results of the Admission Competition of these applications shall be determined at the final stage of the ongoing admission.
120. The ID responsible employees make sure that before the applicants whose applications have passed the Admission Competition are enrolled in the respective RSU study programme, the AIC reference about the educational documents of these applicants is obtained. In specific cases not dependant on the IAC and the ID responsible employees or the applicants and in cases when unclear/inaccurate information about the educational documents of the applicant mentioned in this Paragraph is received from the applicant himself/herself or the AIC, applicants in cooperation with the ID responsible employees make sure that the aforementioned AIC reference is obtained during the first study semester of these applicants at RSU. If the applicant fails to meet this requirement, Sub-paragraphs 167.5 and 167.6 of the Paragraph 167 of the Chapter XV of the present Procedure regarding cancellation of the applicant's study place, shall come into force.

121. After the announcement of the results of the Admission Competition and before the closing date of the Admission Competition, the applicants may not decide to change the study programme in which the IAC has offered them a study place to a different study programme. In exceptional cases (for example, if a study group is not formed in the study programme that the applicant has applied for) and accordingly RSU cannot provide enrolment in the respective study programme), the University reserves the rights to offer a change of the study programme to the applicant.

Sub-chapter Two

Provisions of Admission Procedure to Second Level Professional Higher Education Study Programmes and Bachelor's Study Programmes

122. Taking into account the peculiarities of secondary school educational systems of various countries, each application is evaluated individually by the IAC.
123. Only applications with secondary school diplomas and official transcripts containing grades in the programme-specific and compulsory subjects that correspond or exceed the minimum level of grades set for secondary school educational documents of the respective country may qualify for study places (in accordance with the number of students to be enrolled in the University determined by a separate decree of the rector of RSU).
124. The results of the Admission Competition of the applications with secondary school leaving documents acquired in the educational system of an EU/EEA country or in an international educational programme (for instance, International Baccalaureate (IB), European Baccalaureate (EB), British A Levels programme) shall be taken by individually assessing the academic suitability of these applications for studies at RSU and based on the expertise of the IAC and the ID responsible employees.
125. The results of the Admission Competition of other applications shall be determined only after the AIC reference stipulated in Paragraph 21 of the present Procedure is obtained and/or after full completion of the legalisation procedures for foreign public documents.
126. The applicants who in accordance with the results of the Admission Competition and with the respective protocol of the IAC have received study place offers, shall make the tuition fee payment and other applicable payments within 2 (two) weeks after the registration date of the offer of study place or the date of e-mail on the results of the Admission Competition (except for cases when the University sets a different payment deadline due to a valid reason). Information about the tuition fee payment deadline and the payment deadline of other applicable payments will be included in the offer of study place and/or the e-mail on the results of the Admission Competition.

Sub-chapter Three

Provisions of Admission Procedure to Master's Study Programmes

127. After the ID responsible employee has checked and registered the application, he/she submits it to the Director of the respective study programme for evaluation. The Director of the respective study programme evaluates the essence and content of the application taking into account the peculiarities of university level educational systems of various countries.
128. When the Director of the respective study programme has evaluated the application, he/she informs the ID responsible employees with an electronic information report if the study place should be offered to the applicant. On the basis of the electronic information report of the Director of the respective study programme, the IAC determines the results of the Admission Competition in accordance with Paragraph 118 of the present Procedure.

129. The results of the Admission Competition of applications shall be determined only after the AIC reference stipulated in Paragraph 21 of the present Procedure is obtained and/or after full completion of the legalisation procedures for foreign public documents.
130. The applicants who in accordance with the results of the Admission Competition and with the respective protocol of the IAC have received study place offers, shall make the tuition fee payment and other applicable payments within 2 (two) weeks after the registration date of the offer of study place or the date of e-mail on the results of the Admission Competition (except for cases when the University sets a different payment deadline due to a valid reason). Information about the tuition fee payment deadline and the payment deadline of other applicable payments will be included in the offer of study place and/or the e-mail on the results of the Admission Competition.

Sub-chapter Four

Provisions of Admission Procedure to Doctoral Study Programmes

131. After the ID responsible employee has checked and registered the application, he/she submits it to the Director of the respective study programme for evaluation. The Director of the respective study programme evaluates the essence and content of the application taking into account the peculiarities of university level educational systems of various countries.
132. Only those applicants, whose application documents meet the requirements of the annex of the present Procedure on a particular study programme and who have no outstanding tuition fees or other material liabilities to the University, shall participate in the Admission Competition.
133. The RSU Department of Doctoral Studies as provided for in the requirements of the relevant doctoral study programme shall:
 - 133.1. organise the appointment of reviewers;
 - 133.2. determine the time and procedure for the Oral Defence of the abstract for the intended doctoral thesis;
 - 133.3. notify the applicants thereof;
 - 133.4. organise the work of the Entrance Examination Board and the entrance examination for admission to the doctoral study programmes, if applicable (see Annex No. 8 and Annex No. 9) (hereinafter - Entrance Examination).
134. Applicants' applications shall be evaluated by the following boards:
 - 134.1. Oral Defence Board;
 - 134.2. Applicants' applications with interdisciplinary topic of intended doctoral thesis shall be evaluated by a separate oral defence board depending on the relevant field;
 - 134.3. Entrance Examination Board.
135. Applicants' applications shall be evaluated in the following order:
 - 135.1. assessment of the research for the intended doctoral thesis:
 - 135.1.1. assessment of the abstract for the intended doctoral thesis by two reviewers on a scale from 1 to 20 points (an average score of at least 8 points should be received);
 - 135.1.2. assessment of the abstract for the intended doctoral thesis by the Oral Defence Board on a scale from 1 to 20 points (an average score of at least 8 points should be received).
 - 135.2. assessment of the scientific work undertaken within the range from 0 to 50 points.
136. In case of equal total amount of points, the Admission Competition shall be determined by the points obtained in the Oral Defence.
137. RSU Department of Doctoral Studies shall inform the applicant about the conduct of the Oral Defence and entrance examination (remotely (Zoom or MS Teams) or in person). Oral Defence and entrance examination are conducted in English. A personal identification document must be presented to identify the applicant. During the entire Oral Defence (if it is conducted online), the applicant's web camera and microphone must be switched on.
138. The applicant shall take the entrance examination for admission to the respective study programme, if is required in accordance with the present Procedure.
139. The entrance examination is conducted by the Entrance Examination Board consisting of at least three members. The entrance examination shall be assessed as "passed" or "failed". The assessment of the entrance examination shall not be included in the total amount of the admission criteria.

140. Applicants, who have not participated in the Entrance Examination at the specified time, have failed the Entrance Examination or have not been able to present their personal identification document, shall be excluded from further participation in the Admission Competition.
141. In accordance with the academic assessment criteria and the points obtained in them (the first two decimal digits shall be taken into account), the RSU Department of Doctoral Studies informs the ID responsible employees with an electronic information report if the study place should be offered to the applicant. On the basis of the electronic information report of the Director of the respective study programme, the IAC determines the results of the Admission Competition in accordance with Paragraph 118 of the present Procedure.
142. The results of the Admission Competition of applications shall be determined only after the AIC reference stipulated in Paragraph 21 of the present Procedure is obtained and/or after full completion of the legalisation procedures for foreign public documents.
143. The applicants who in accordance with the results of the Admission Competition and with the respective protocol of the IAC have received study place offers, shall make the tuition fee payment and other applicable payments within 2 (two) weeks after the registration date of the offer of study place or the date of e-mail on the results of the Admission Competition (except for cases when the University sets a different payment deadline due to a valid reason). Information about the tuition fee payment deadline and the payment deadline of other applicable payments will be included in the offer of study place and/or the e-mail on the results of the Admission Competition.

Chapter X Re-applying for Studies

144. Applicants who have submitted their fully assembled applications, but who do not pass the Admission Competition, who have not been offered a study place or who have declined the study place, may re-apply for studies in the next consecutive admission without the need to re-upload/re-submit all application documents.
145. Applicants specified in Paragraph 144 of the present Procedure must:
 - 145.1. fill out anew the electronic application form on the eA Portal;
 - 145.2. application fee shall be paid to the RSU account. The applicant shall upload the payment confirmation to the electronic application form on the eA Portal;
 - 145.3. applicants specified in Paragraph 24, 167.3 and 168.2 of the present Procedure do not have to pay to the RSU account the application fee.
146. The results of the Admission Competition of the previous ongoing admission (the IAC decisions on study places stipulated in a protocol of the IAC) including offers of study place are not in force/valid in the next admissions. If the applicant re-applies for studies, he participates in the University's Admission Competition of the ongoing admission.
147. Should the applicant wish to re-apply for studies after more than one (next) consecutive admission, he/she shall submit a new fully assembled application to the University (the documents initially uploaded/submitted are destroyed).

Chapter XI Payments, Drafting and Conclusion of Study Contracts, Enrolment

148. The applicants who have passed the Admission Competition shall:
 - 148.1. confirm the study place by making the tuition fee payment and other applicable payments (established by a separate order of the rector of RSU) within 2 (two) weeks after the registration date of the offer of study place or the date of e-mail on the results of the Admission Competition;
 - 148.2. making payments after the deadline prescribed by RSU (2 (two) weeks after the registration date of the offer of study place or the date of e-mail on the results of the Admission Competition) might be a reason for losing the study place. In case the applicant is not able to pay the tuition fee in time due to impartial reasons not depending on him/her (e.g. any delays/failure of the responsible authorities to allocate the financial means to the applicant), the applicant shall accordingly notify the ID responsible employees thereof and shall ask for prolongation of the deadline of the tuition fee payment. The ID responsible employees provide the applicant with an “Application for payment extension”, which the applicant fills out and sends to the ID responsible employees via e-mail.

149. When applicants have confirmed their study places by making the payments, the ID responsible employees shall draft the study contract with the University for these applicants (within 1 (one) week after the payments have been received).
150. Prior to the official commencement of studies, the applicants specified in Paragraph 148 of the present Procedure shall conclude a study contract with the University. The ID responsible employees shall set the date and time for concluding the study contract. Failure to conclude the study contract in due time might be a reason for losing the study place.
151. Prior to the official commencement of studies, the ID responsible employees shall enrol the applicants specified in Paragraph 148 of the present Procedure in the respective RSU study programme by an RSU Decree (formal process of obtaining a student status). The Decree shall be signed by the Vice-Rector for Administration and Development of the University. The Decree shall be countersigned by the Director of the ID and the Head of the IAO of the ID.

Chapter XII

Storage of Applicants' Application Documents and Students' Personal Files

152. Taking into account that all applicants' application documents are uploaded onto/enclosed to their electronic application form on the eA Portal, the University stores these documents on the eA Portal.
153. The ID responsible employees ensure that statements issued by AIC on the education certificates or academic degrees awarded in Latvia that correspond to the applicants' education certificates or degrees acquired abroad are uploaded onto the eA Portal. The original digital copies of these statements are stored on the SEIS.
154. The University shall keep the application documents uploaded/submitted by the applicants who are not enrolled in the respective RSU study programme for the period of 1 (one) year (except for hard copies of their submitted/handed in original secondary/higher education diplomas and official transcripts and other original educational documents and certificates) in conformity with the procedure of RSU Rules of Nomenclature. After the end of the deadline for document keeping specified in RSU Rules of Nomenclature, the documents uploaded/submitted by the applicants shall be destroyed. The original secondary/higher education diplomas and official transcripts and other original education documents and certificates will be stored at the ID.
155. After the applicants' enrolment in the respective RSU study programme (obtaining a student status) but not later than 30 (thirty) calendar days after the official commencement of studies, the students (the status of the person changed from "applicant" to "student") are obliged to submit/send by mail hard copies of the documents, that are required for preparation of a students' personal files:
 - 155.1. originals or certified copies of secondary school leaving diploma/university diploma and the official transcript (the certification can be issued by a sworn notary (or an equivalent authority) or the issuing authority of the original;
 - 155.2. translation into English of the secondary school leaving diploma/university diploma and the official transcript certified (bearing original wet stamp and signature) by a sworn notary (or an equivalent authority), a registered professional translator or the issuing authority of the original;
 - 155.3. study contract concluded with the University in two (2) copies.

156. The documents specified in point 155 of the present Procedure can be submitted/sent by mail to the ID responsible employees also before the applicants' enrolment in the respective RSU study programme.
157. The ID responsible employees shall prepare students' personal files. These personal files contain hard copies of documents specified in point 155 of the present Procedure and copy of the student's passport (data page) or copy of the student's personal identity card.
158. Not later than 30 (thirty) calendar days after the official commencement of studies, all students' (applicants enrolled in the respective RSU study programme) personal files are handed over to the responsible faculty/Student Services by drawing up an appropriate deed.

Chapter XIII

Procedure for Admission of Applicants Under the Age of 18 at the Moment of the Commencement of Studies

159. Applicants who are under the age of 18 (eighteen, minors) at the moment of commencement of studies are eligible for admission to the University's English-taught second level professional higher education study programmes and Bachelor's study programmes, if they meet the following criteria:
 - 159.1. they have acquired secondary education attested by the secondary education diploma and the official transcript;
 - 159.2. they present a power of attorney signed by both parents or the current guardian authorising a certain person to be the applicant's legal guardian within the territory of the Republic of Latvia until the moment the applicant turns 18 (eighteen).
160. The University shall not be obliged to provide underage applicants with a legal guardian. Applicants and their family shall assume responsibility for appointing a legal guardian and settling the required legal formalities.
161. If the applicant's parents arrive and stay with the applicant in the Republic of Latvia until the moment the applicant turns 18 (eighteen), they are obliged to inform the responsible employees of the ISD thereof. In such case, no written power of attorney is necessary.
162. A person can be appointed as a legal guardian (in conformity with Paragraphs 40 and 43 of the Regulations of the Cabinet of Ministers No. 564 "Regulations Regarding Residence Permits") if he/she is a citizen of the Republic of Latvia and has reached the age of 18 or if he/she is a citizen of any other country who has reached the age of 18 (eighteen) and who has rights to reside in Latvia.
163. The guardian of the underage applicant shall have the following obligations towards RSU and the applicant:
 - 163.1. to perform his/her duties conscientiously;
 - 163.2. to sign the study contract and other necessary documents together with the applicant;
 - 163.3. to participate in the applicant's immigration procedure and its organisation (if applicable).

Chapter XIV

Rights and Obligations of the Applicant and the University

164. The applicant shall have the following obligations during the admission process:
 - 164.1. to upload/submit and, if applicable, present the documents specified in the present Procedure and its annexes;
 - 164.2. to fill out an electronic application form and provide solely truthful information to the University;
 - 164.3. to get acquainted with and observe the provisions of the present Procedure and external regulatory enactments with regard to the admission process;
 - 164.4. to observe the deadlines specified in the regulatory enactments and the present Procedure;

- 164.5. to settle financial obligations towards the University within the deadline set by RSU;
- 164.6. to fulfil other obligations arising from the regulatory enactments.
- 165. The University shall have the following obligations during the admission process:
 - 165.1. to ensure fair and non-discriminatory (irrespective of race, skin colour, gender, religion, special needs, origin, ethnicity) admission process in conformity with regulatory enactments;
 - 165.2. to provide information about study opportunities at the University and their rights and obligations;
 - 165.3. to provide information about the number of applicants to be enrolled in the University's study programmes (study places financed by natural and legal persons);
 - 165.4. to set the amount of the tuition fee and other applicable payments;
 - 165.5. to accept and process the documents uploaded/submitted by the applicants;
 - 165.6. to announce the results of the Admission Competition to the applicants via e-mail;
 - 165.7. to announce the reception of applicant's payments in RSU account via e-mail;
 - 165.8. to organise the conclusion of study contracts with the applicants specified in Paragraph 148 of the present Procedure;
 - 165.9. to organise the enrolment of the applicants specified in Paragraph 148 of the present Procedure (formal process of obtaining a student status) in the respective RSU study programme;
 - 165.10. upon the applicant's request, to send back to the applicant the originals of the secondary school diploma and/or the official transcript or other documents certifying education (if such documents have been submitted) by keeping their copies. No other application documents (both originals and copies) shall be returned to the applicant;
 - 165.11. to fulfil other obligations arising from the regulatory enactments.
- 166. The obligations of the applicant and the University correspond to the relevant rights of the other party.

Chapter XV

Cancellation of the Study Place

- 167. The University reserves the right to cancel the applicant's study place in the ongoing admission in the following cases:
 - 167.1. the applicant fails to fulfil the financial obligations towards the University within the deadline specified in the offer of study place sent by the University;
 - 167.2. the applicant fails to carry out the required steps of the immigration process defined by the University or other procedures related to the admissions and the official commencement of onsite studies specified by the University (for example, conclusion of study contracts);
 - 167.3. the applicant fails to commence onsite studies for more than 2 (two) weeks after the official commencement of onsite studies due to immigration process or because of the failure to certify documents with an Apostille or to legalise them (see Paragraph 29 of the present Procedure) or any other reason;
 - 167.4. RSU receives information from the competent institution of the Republic of Latvia (such as the Office of Citizenship and Migration Affairs, the State Border Guard, the Latvian Security Police, competent embassy of the Republic of Latvia, a.o. institutions) that the applicant has failed to carry out the required steps of the immigration process and obligations towards the Republic of Latvia;
 - 167.5. RSU receives information from the competent institutions (such as the AIC) that might serve as grounds for doubting the sufficiency or conformity of the application documents that the applicant has uploaded/submitted during the admission process to the requirements of the regulatory enactments or the requirements set by RSU;
 - 167.6. during the admission process RSU discovers that the applicant has provided incomplete and/or untruthful data and/or information.

168. The University retains (guarantees) the offered study place to the applicant for one (next) successive admission in the same study programme in the following cases:
- 168.1. the applicant fails to commence onsite studies or is absent for more than 2 (two) weeks after the official commencement of onsite studies due to impartial reasons not depending on him/her (e.g. any delays/failure to issue immigration or any other documents by the responsible authorities);
 - 168.2. a study group is not formed in the study programme that the applicant has applied for and accordingly RSU cannot provide enrolment in the respective study programme.
169. The conditions stipulated in Paragraph 168 of the present Procedure shall come into force only in cases when the study programme shall be opened and admission of applicants is feasible in the chosen RSU study programme (a full study group is formed) in accordance with Paragraph 10 of the present Procedure.

Chapter XVI

Appeals and Challenging of Admission-Related Decisions

170. Within 3 (three) working days after the announcement of the results of the Admission Competition to the applicant, the applicant shall be entitled to submit a written appeal regarding the results of the Admission Competition to the IAC. Within 3 (three) working days, the IAC shall re-evaluate the applicant's application and immediately notify the applicant about the revised results of the Admission Competition electronically.
171. The results of the Admission Competition stipulated in the protocol of the IAC may be contested by submitting an application to RSU Rector within 1 (one) month after the results of the Admission Competition have entered into force. Decision made by RSU Rector may be appealed against according to the procedure established in the Administrative Procedure Law.

Chapter XVII

Final Provisions

172. All issues related to admission to the University not stipulated by the regulatory enactments of the Republic of Latvia or the present Procedure shall be reviewed by the IAC.
173. The present Procedure is subject to change upon necessity or in cases of amendments to the regulatory enactments.
174. The information on study opportunities at the University is provided:
- 174.1. during international education fairs, webinars, RSU Open Days, onsite visits to the University, as well as electronically or by phone;
 - 174.2. through RSU cooperation partners;
 - 174.3. by displaying the information in the University's premises and/or on RSU website (<https://www.rsu.lv/en>).
175. For information about the admission procedures, process and progress the applicant may contact the ID responsible employees via or e-mail admissions@rsu.lv or in person in Riga, 16 Dzirciema Street.
176. For information about the immigration procedures, process and progress the applicant may contact the ID responsible employees via e-mail immigration@rsu.lv or in person in Riga, 16 Dzirciema Street.
